

Contents

Chapter 1 • Volunteering and Values: An Introduction	1
Paul Dekker and Loek Halman
Volunteering	1
Background	3
Outcomes	8
Structure of the Book	11
References	16
Chapter 2 • All in the Eyes of the Beholder? Perceptions of Volunteering Across Eight Countries	19
Lucas C.P.M. Meijs, Femida Handy, Ram A. Cnaan, Jeffrey L. Brudney, Ugo Ascoli, Shree Ranade, Lesley Hustinx, Suzanne Weber and Idit Weiss
Introduction	19
The Questionnaire	20
A Cross-Cultural Analysis	21
Discussion and Implications	32
References	34
Chapter 3 • Volunteering in Global Perspective	35
Virginia A. Hodgkinson
The Rate and Scope of Volunteering in Various Countries	36
Defining Volunteering	38
Volunteering Rates by Nation	38
The Fields in Which Volunteers Are Active	41
Social Resources Theory	45
Discussion and Conclusions	51
References	52

Chapter 4 • Modernization and Volunteering	55
Ronald Inglehart
Volunteering in Knowledge Societies	55
Modernization and Cultural Change: Two Dimensions of Cross-Cultural Variation	56
Intergenerational Differences in Membership and Volunteering	60
Three Types of Volunteering	63
Conclusions	70
References	70
 Chapter 5 • Institutional Roots of Volunteering: Toward a Macro-Structural Theory of Individual Voluntary Action	71
Lester M. Salamon and S. Wojciech Sokolowski
Introduction	71
Volunteering in 24 Countries: Major Findings	72
Explaining Patterns of Volunteering	77
Summary and Conclusions	87
References	89
 Chapter 6 • Do People Who Volunteer Have a Distinctive Ethos? A Canadian Study	91
Paul Reed and L. Kevin Selbee
Prologue and Guiding Questions	91
Data and Analysis Strategy	93
Analysis	95
Concluding Commentary	102
Appendix	103
References	109
 Chapter 7 • A Humanistic Perspective on the Volunteer-Recipient Relationship: A Mexican Study	111
Jacqueline Butcher
Introduction	111
A Humanistic Approach to Volunteering	113
Volunteering as “Serving” and as “Helping”	116
An Empirical Study with Mexican Volunteers	117
The Dynamics of the Volunteer-Recipient Relationship	120

Outcomes and Conclusions	122
References	124
Chapter 8 • From Restitution to Innovation: Volunteering in Postcommunist Countries	127
Stanislovas Juknevičius and Aida Savicka
Introduction	127
Marxist Theory and the Practice of Volunteering	129
Dynamics of Volunteering in Postcommunist Countries	132
Volunteering in Lithuania	137
Conclusion: The Future of Volunteering	141
References	141
Chapter 9 • Volunteering in Romania: A Rara Avis	143
Mălina Voicu and Bodgan Voicu
Introduction	143
Conceptual Delimitations and Theoretical Background	144
Individual Determinants of Volunteering in Romania	149
Contextual Determinants of Volunteering in Romania	153
Conclusions	157
References	158
Chapter 10 • Generations and Organizational Change	161
Dag Wollebæk and Per Selle
Introduction: Where Have All the Volunteers Gone?	161
Design and Data	163
Generational Differences Reflect and Cause Social Change	164
The Results: Attitudes toward Voluntary Organizing	166
What Distinguishes New Organizations from Traditional Ones?	170
Toward a New Organizational Society?	175
References	177
Chapter 11 • Volunteering, Democracy, and Democratic Attitudes	179
Loek Halman
Introduction	179
Some Theoretical Considerations	181
Data and Measurements	185
Analyses	187
References	197

Chapter 12 • Cultivating Apathy in Voluntary Associations 199
Nina Eliasoph

The Ideal 201
Volunteers Encouraging Each Other to Care 201
“We Accomplish a Lot”: The “Frontstage” Is for Volunteer Groups 203 Backstage Complaints and Recognition of Problems 205 Officials Reinforce Volunteers’ Political Avoidance 207
The Culture of Political Avoidance 209 Bridging Private and Public: The Strange Case of Child-Centered Civic Life in the United States 210
References 212

Index 213

Index

- Activism, grassroots, 79
- Adolescents, volunteering by, 92, 147
- Advocacy, 38
- African countries: see also names of specific countries
value systems of, 59
- Age factors: see also Generational differences in civic participation, 55–56 in volunteering, 151, 180
correlation with democratic attitudes, 193, 196
in developed versus developing/ex-communist countries, 60–62
- Agrarian societies: see also Rural areas traditional values of, 58
volunteering in, 65, 66, 67
- Altruism
as motivation for volunteering, 6, 77, 148, 153 positive physical effects of, 114 of voluntary work, 144
as volunteering component, 116–117
in women, 147
- American Red Cross, volunteer definition of, 111, 116
- Anglo countries, volunteering rate in, 41, 42
- Antidrug groups, avoidance of political discussions within, 202, 206–209
- Apathy, cultivation of, in voluntary organizations, 199–212 “backstage” discussions and, 205–206 case examples of, 201–212 culture of political avoidance and, 209–210
- Apathy, cultivation of, in voluntary organizations (cont.) “frontstage” discussions and, 203–205, 210 officials’ reinforcement of, 206–209 racism and, 203–204, 205–206
- Argentina
volunteering in
expressive versus service orientation of, 76
government spending and, 82–83
rates of, 39, 42, 44
service orientation of, 86
volunteers in
comparison with nonvolunteers, 46
formal (paid), 84
as percentage of adult population, 43, 44
- Arts-related organizations, volunteering in in European countries, 187, 188
in Soviet Union, 131
- Attribution fallacy, 3–4
- Australia, volunteering in, 6
expressive versus service orientation of, 76
formal (paid) volunteers, 84
government spending and, 82–83
service orientation of, 86
- Austria
volunteering in, 189
democratic attitudes and, 191
government spending and, 82–83
by specific types of volunteering, 188
volunteers in
comparison with nonvolunteers, 46, 190
formal (paid), 84
as percentage of adult population, 43, 44

- Belarus
 volunteering in, 189
 democratic attitudes and, 191
 prevalence of, 133
 by specific types of volunteering, 188
 volunteers in
 comparison with nonvolunteers, 47, 190
 as percentage of adult population, 43
- Belgium
 volunteering in, 189
 democratic attitudes and, 191
 expressive versus service orientation of, 76
 government spending and, 82–83
 public perceptions of, 22–25, 26, 27, 28–29, 31, 32
 service orientation of, 86
 by specific types of volunteering, 188
 trends in, 192, 193, 194
 volunteers in
 comparison with nonvolunteers, 46, 190
 formal (paid), 84
 as percentage of adult population, 43, 44
- Benevolence, as volunteering determinant, 6
- Benevolence, as volunteering determinant, 153
- Blood donations, 22, 27
- Blue Cross, 162, 176
- Brazil, volunteering in
 expressive versus service orientation of, 76
 formal (paid) volunteers, 84
 government spending and, 82–83
 as percentage of national employment, 74
 service orientation of, 86
- Bulgaria
 volunteering in, 189
 democratic attitudes and, 191
 post-communism, 133
 prevalence of, 133, 153–154
 by specific types of volunteering, 188
 volunteers in
 comparison with nonvolunteers, 47, 190
 as percentage of adult population, 43, 44
- Campaigning, 38
- Canada
 volunteering in public perceptions of, 22–25, 26, 27, 28, 29–30, 31
 rate of, 39, 91–92
- Canada (cont.)
 volunteers in
 comparison with nonvolunteers, 46, 95–101
 as percentage of adult population, 43, 44 volunteers' values and beliefs, 13, 91–109
 comparison with non-volunteers, 95–101 correlation with amount of volunteering time, 96, 101 effect of educational level on, 98–99, 100 effect of rural residence on, 98–99, 100 as ethos, 97, 102–103
 of formal and direct volunteers, 100, 102, 103
- Caring
 avoidance of, 199–200
 by civic group participants, 199–200, 201–203
- Caring Adult Network, 207, 208
- Catholic countries, value systems of, 59
- Catholics, volunteering by, 152 comparison with Protestants, 156
- Central African Republic volunteering rates in, 39, 42, 44
 volunteers in
 comparison with nonvolunteers, 47
 as percentage of adult population, 43, 44
- Central European countries: see also names of specific countries democracy in, 181
 volunteering in, 180, 196
 volunteering rates in, 39
- Charitable organizations, in individualistic versus collectivist societies, 9
- Charity, 116–117, 182–183
- Child-oriented civic life, 210–212
- Childrearing
 community's involvement in, 207, 208 parents' lack of time for, 207–208, 211
- Child-related causes, volunteering for: see also Youth work organizations, 38
- Children
 as motivation for volunteering, 6, 146
 as source of social contacts, 146
- Chile
 volunteering rate in, 39
 volunteers in
 comparison with nonvolunteers, 46
 as percentage of adult population, 43, 44

- China
 voluntary associations in, 146
 volunteering in compulsory nature of, 42
 in conservation/environmental organizations, 64, 65
 rate of, 39, 67, 68–69
 religious participation and, 47, 48 in specific types of volunteering, 64, 65, 68–69
 volunteers in
 comparison with nonvolunteers, 47
 as percentage of adult population, 43, 44
- Circumstantial factors, in volunteering, 3–4
- Civic life, child-oriented, 210–212
- Civic organizations, volunteering in, 73
- Civic participation
 age factors in, 55–56
 decline in, 179
 in the United States, 55–56
 ideal, 201
 models of, 200, 201
 as volunteering component, 50–51
- Civil rights, 191, 192, 196
- Civil society
 characteristics of, 127 communist, 129–130
 definition of, 35–36
 ex-communist countries, 128 role of volunteering in, 8–11
- Colleagues, as volunteering determinants, 152
- Colombia, volunteering in
 expressive versus service orientation of, 76
 formal (paid) volunteers, 84
 government spending and, 82–83
 as percentage of national employment, 74
 service orientation of, 86
- Communism, definition of, 130
- Communist countries: see also names of specific countries civil society in, 129–130
 volunteering in, 14, 64–65, 130–132
 compulsory nature of, 144, 154–155
 Marxist theory and, 129–132
- Community, role in childrearing, 207, 208
- Commuting, 207–208
- Confucianism, 59, 60
- Corporations, donations from, 204–205
- Corporatist model, of nonprofit sector-state relationship, 80, 81, 84–85, 86, 88
- Croatia
 volunteering in, 189
 democratic attitudes and, 191
 prevalence of, 153–154
 by specific types of volunteering, 188
 volunteers in
 comparison with nonvolunteers, 47, 190
 as percentage of adult population, 43, 44
- Cultural model, of volunteering, 200
- Cultural organizations, volunteering in cross-national differences in, 63, 64, 69
 in European countries, 187, 188
 in ex-communist countries, 134
 as percentage of total volunteering activities, 73, 75
 in Soviet Union, 131
- Culture
 of benevolence, 93
 of coherence, 92–93
 definition of, 7
 influence on volunteering, 7–8 modernization-related change in, 56–60 of nostalgia, 207
 of political avoidance, 209–210
- Czechoslovakia, volunteering in, 129
- Czech Republic
 nongovernmental organizations in, 155
 volunteering in, 133, 141, 189
 democratic attitudes and, 191
 expressive orientation of, 86
 expressive versus service orientation of, 76
 government spending and, 82–83
 in political parties, 137
 rate of, 39
 by specific types of volunteering, 188 in welfare organizations, 136
 volunteers in
 comparison with nonvolunteers, 46, 190
 as percentage of adult population, 43, 44
- Democracies
 transitional: see Ex-communist countries
 volunteering in, 7–8, 12–13, 14
 correlation with age of democracies, 183, 191–192, 196
- Democracy
 in America, 179
 corporatist model of, 79, 80 older generations' role in, 165 relationship with volunteering, 181–182

- Democracy (cont.)
 role of voluntary organizations in, 199, 200
- Democratic attitudes, in European volunteering, 179–198
 age factors in, 193, 196
 age of democracies and, 191, 192, 196
 civil rights and, 191, 192, 196
 economic development and, 191, 196
 political rights and, 191, 192, 196
 religiosity and, 191, 192, 196
 theoretical basis of, 181–185
 trends in, 192–195
- Democratic role, of voluntary organizations, 176, 177
- Democratic structure, of voluntary organizations, 169–170
- Denmark
 volunteering in, 189
 democratic attitudes and, 191
 by specific types of volunteering, 188
 trends in, 192, 193, 194
 volunteers in
 comparison with nonvolunteers, 46, 190
 as percentage of adult population, 43, 44
- Disagreement, fear of, 209
- Eastern European countries: see also names of specific countries
 democracy in, 181
 volunteering in, 180, 196
 comparison with Western European countries, 133, 134
 democratic attitudes and, 190
- East Germany, volunteers in
 comparison with nonvolunteers, 46
 as percentage of adult population, 43, 44
- Economic development
 correlation with democratic attitudes, 191, 196
 correlation with volunteering, 180, 183– 184, 191
 as intergenerational culture change cause, 56–60
 as values change cause, 58
- Educational level negative correlation with religiosity, 152–153 positive correlation with volunteering, 146, 152–153, 155
- Educational organizations, volunteering in cross-national comparison of, 63, 64
- Educational organizations, volunteering in (cont.)
 in European countries, 187, 188
 in ex-communist countries, 134
 as percentage of total volunteering activities, 73
- Ehrenamt, 2, 20
- Emotional gratification, as motivation for volunteering, 77
- Environmental volunteering
 cross-national differences in, 40, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67
 in ex-communist countries, 134, 135 increase in, 52
 as percentage of total volunteering activities, 73
- Estonia
 volunteering in, 189
 democratic attitudes and, 191
 post-communism, 133
 rate of, 133, 153–154
 by specific types of volunteering, 135, 136, 188
 volunteers in
 comparison with nonvolunteers, 47, 190
 as percentage of adult population, 43, 44
- Europe: see also names of specific countries democratic attitudes toward volunteering in, 179–198
 age factors in, 193, 196
 age of democracies and, 191, 192, 196
 civil rights and, 191, 192, 196
 economic development and, 191, 196
 political rights and, 191, 192, 196
 religiosity and, 191, 192, 196
 theoretical basis of, 181–185
 trends in, 192–195
 volunteering in, 180
- European Values Survey, 3, 12, 14, 15, 36, 37, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 55, 56, 129, 149, 151, 153, 180, 185
- Ex-communist countries: *see also names of
 specific countries*
 value systems of, 59, 60
 voluntary associations in, 146
 volunteering in, 65
 age factors in, 60–62
 continuative orientation of, 128, 132– 133, 134–125, 141
 dynamics of, 132–137

- Ex-communist countries (cont.) volunteering in (cont.) imitative orientation of, 128, 137 innovative orientation of, 128, 137
 Marxist theory and, 129–133
 rates of, 39, 153–154
 restitutive orientation of, 127, 128, 135–136, 141 social change model of, 127–128
- Expression, as volunteering component cross-national comparisons of, 76–77
 definition of, 75
 differentiated from service, 75, 76
- Familialism, excessive, 77
- Familial societies, lack of volunteering in, 146
- Family structure changes, as social capital decline cause, 184
- Feminist theory, 211
- Finland
 volunteering in, 189
 democratic attitudes and, 191
 expressive orientation of, 86
 expressive versus service orientation of, 76 government social welfare spending and, 82
 by specific types of volunteering, 188
 volunteers in
 comparison with nonvolunteers, 46, 190
 formal (paid), 84
 as percentage of adult population, 43, 44
- Foundations, volunteering in, 73
- France
 volunteering in, 189
 democratic attitudes and, 191
 expressive orientation of, 86, 87
 expressive versus service orientation of, 76
 government spending and, 82–83
 as percentage of national employment, 74
 by specific types of volunteering, 188
 trends in, 192–193, 194
 volunteers in
 comparison with nonvolunteers, 46, 190
 formal (paid), 84
 as percentage of adult population, 43, 44
- Freedom House rankings, 12, 42, 43, 58, 188
- Free-will/free-choice component, of volunteering, 19, 24, 25, 27–28, 32–33, 38
- Fund-raising, by volunteers, 203, 204–205
- Gender factors, in volunteering, 147
- Generational differences, in volunteering, 162–177
 in attitudes toward volunteering, 166–170 social change and, 164–166
- Germany: see also East Germany; West Germany
 volunteering in, 2, 189
 definition of, 20
 democratic attitudes and, 191
 expressive versus service orientation of, 76
 government spending and, 82–83
 as percentage of national employment, 74 public perception of, 22–25, 26, 27, 28–29, 31, 32
 service orientation of, 86, 87
 by specific types of volunteering, 188 volunteers in, comparison with nonvolunteers, 190
- Global associational revolution, 37
- Goffman, Ervin, 205
- Government, decline of trust in, 55
- Greece
 volunteering in, 189
 democratic attitudes and, 191
 by specific types of volunteering, 188
 volunteers in
 comparison with nonvolunteers, 46, 190
 as percentage of adult population, 43, 44
- Greek Catholics, volunteering by, 152
- Gross National Product, social welfare spending/volunteering component of, 81–82
- Health-related organizations, volunteering in cross-national differences in, 64
 as percentage of total volunteering activities, 73
- Health status, as volunteering determinant, 146
- Helping behavior, religion-based, 183
- Helping relationships, 116–117 in Mexico, 118, 119–120, 122–123
- Heterogeneity/crowding-out theory, nonprofit sector-state relationship, 78, 81–82, 88
- Hong Kong
 volunteering rates in, 39, 42, 44
 volunteers in
 comparison with nonvolunteers, 47