Table of contents

Foreword .....	VII
Preface .....	XI
Contents overview .....	XIII
List of figures .....	XIX
List of tables .....	XX
List of abbreviations .....	XXI
Summary .....	XXIII
Chapter 1 - Research problem introduction .....	1
1.1    Research relevance .....	2
1.2    Status Quo - knowledge transfer success levers .....	3
1.3    Research gap .....	10
1.4    Research questions .....	13
1.5    Research objectives .....	13
1.6    Thesis structure .....	14
Chapter 2 - Research approach .....	17
2.1    Research process design.....	17
2.2    Research method .....	19
2.2.1    Case sample selection .....	21
2.2.2    Data collection .....	25
2.2.3    Analyzing the data and building theory.....	26
Chapter 3 - Research work foundation .....	28
3.1    Conceptual foundation .....	28
3.1.1    Knowledge-based view.....	29
3.1.2    Dynamic capabilities view.....	31
3.2    Theoretical approaches.....	33

3.2.1	Knowledge transfer theory .....	34
3.2.2	Pedagogical theory and (organizational) teaching theory .....	37
	Pedagogical and educational teaching theory .....	38
	(Organizational) Teaching theory .....	39
3.2.3	Communication theories .....	40
	Media richness theory (MRT) .....	43
3.3	Summary .....	44
Chapter 4 - Development of working propositions .....		48
4.1	'Measuring' knowledge transfer success .....	49
4.2	Working propositions on DiC .....	51
4.2.1	Initial disseminative capabilities .....	54
4.2.2	Reflective disseminative capabilities.....	58
4.2.3	Moderating capability .....	61
4.3	Summary .....	62
Chapter 5 - Case study investigations .....		64
5.1	Case study design .....	64
5.2	Automotive industry trends.....	68
5.3	Case studies participants .....	69
5.3.1	Magna Steyr Fahrzeugtechnik AG & Co. KG.....	72
5.3.2	Bayrische Motorenwerke (BMW) AG .....	73
5.3.3	Mercedes Benz Cars .....	74
5.4	Summary .....	75
Chapter 6 - Cross-case analysis and theory building .....		77
6.1	The set of knowledge sender capabilities.....	79
6.1.1	The valuable knowledge sender .....	79
6.1.2	Knowledge selection.....	88
6.1.3	Knowledge de-contextualization .....	94
6.1.4	Knowledge encoding .....	99
6.1.5	Designing and utilizing an adequate knowledge transfer approach .....	101

6.1.6	Supporting the knowledge application .....	107
6.1.7	Building up and utilizing relational capital .....	111
6.1.8	Considering and using feedback.....	117
6.2	Summary .....	122
6.3	Revised model of DiC .....	127
Chapter 7 - Discussion and implications of results.....		129
7.1	Management Implications.....	130
7.1.1	Valuable knowledge sender.....	130
7.1.2	Knowledge selection.....	131
7.1.3	Knowledge de-contextualizing .....	132
7.1.4	Knowledge encoding .....	133
7.1.5	Designing the transfer approach.....	134
7.1.6	Supporting the knowledge application .....	135
7.1.7	Relational capital .....	136
7.1.8	Feedback .....	137
7.2	Theoretical contributions.....	140
7.2.1	New perspectives on knowledge transfer theory .....	140
7.2.2	New perspective on related research streams .....	141
7.2.3	New perspectives on knowledge-/capability-based views of the firm .	142
7.3	Summary .....	143
7.4	Research limitations and thesis pitfalls .....	144
7.4.1	Research limitations.....	145
7.4.2	Difficulties along the dissertation road.....	147
7.5	Further research on disseminative capabilities .....	148
